National FBLA Week

Celebrated Feb. 10-16

The week of February 10 through the 16th was National FBLA Week. In observance of this, the Appomattox Chapter of FBLA carried out various projects.

Each morning of FBLA Week an FBLA member made a short talk on various aspects of FBLA. This was given over the school intercom so that all students could become familiar with what our Chapter does. Some of the things talked about were the Regional, State, and National Conventions held each year, the March of Dimes, which is the FBLA National Project for this year, a brief history of FBLA was given, and a summary of all the weeks activities was given on Friday.

Bulletin boards were placed at various locations of our school recognizing FBLA Week.

Each day of FBLA Week our Chapter carried out different projects for our school and community. Monday members brought refreshments which were placed in the teachers' lounge for the teachers' enjoyment; Tuesday members sold suckers to raise money for the March of Dimes; Wednesday we held our monthly meeting. For our program Mr. Tillery, our principal, spoke on the importance of FBLA in the high school. Debbie Tweedy was chosen as the best dressed office employee for the day. On Thursday and Friday members aided teachers in any work that they had such as typing up material and running off copies.

The main event of FBLA Week was the banquet which was held Wednesday night at Maude's Restaurant. Miriam Ferris, Appomattox Chapter President, presided over the banquet. We had as our guests Mr. and Mrs. John McLean and Mr. and Mrs. George Blanton. After the meal Miriam Ferris gave a short monologue for our entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Garrett visited her daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Frank Laveque Sunday also Teddy Geraldin and Betty.

* * *

Visiting Mrs. Irvin C. Moses were Mr. and Mrs. George Kruer over the week end. Other guest in the same home were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilkerson, Mrs. Mary Coleman and her daughter Kathy Wells of Gladstone.

* * *

Miss Dot Sears of Peters-burg spent the week end with her brother, Mrs. J. E. Sears.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Hendricks spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen Sears and family.

* * *

Mrs. S. J. Evans was dinner guest on Sunday of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Almond, of Madison Heights.

* * *

Mrs. G. A. McIntosh and Teresa visited Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Williams and Steve and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Roach over the week end.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Smith and Mrs. Molly Rogers spent last week end in Richmond visited Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith and family also Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Smith and son Wayne.

What's Happening In Concord?

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Booth celebrated their Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary last week in a quiet but enjoyable occasion at the home of one of their two sons, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Booth in Concord. The other son and his wife from Lynchburg, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Booth, were co-host and hostess.

In addition to the immediate family, the mother and an aunt and uncle of Mrs. Thomas R. Booth, were present — Mrs. Anna Mae Hudson and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sheppe.

In the words of Mr. and Mrs. Booth, the honorees, "This was a beautiful and enjoyable affair which we shall always remember as a lovely milestone in our lives. Our only regret is that due to our health we were unable to have our hosts of community friends and neighbors with us."

When the news "got around" that the Booths were celebrating their anniversary, greetings, gifts, and good wishes began to appear from their many friends and are continuing even now.

Mr. and Mrs. David Boger left on Tuesday for the Holy Land where they will attend an World Conference on "The Holy Spirit in Jerusalem" Feb. 27-29. After the conference the Bogers will spend some time in traveling in the area and will return home on March 8.

Mrs. James F. MacKenzie, Mr. Stephen Poos, Mrs. Robert Drinkard, Mrs. Charles H. Martin, and Dr. Mae Kelly are attending The Christian Workers School at Park View Methodist Church in Lynchburg this week.

Gary Martin has returned to school after having been confined to the hospital and his home for mor than a week.

Mrs. M. M. Roberts is visiting her children in Richmond.
